A large fecolith in right sided colonic diverticulitis. Panel A. A 2.5 cm large fecolith (arrows) within inflamed cecal diverticulum. Panel B. On the corresponding US image, the fecolith (arrows) casts a strong acoustic shadow. Panel C. Three days later the fecolith has evacuated to the colonic lumen, leaving only a residual air-bubble (arrow) within the diverticulum.